

A STUDY OF GREEK PHILOSOPHY

"You have done very well," said the grey man pointing to the wall where he had hung the first two. Brother Hart stirred slightly but did not waken. Then Hinda, too, was asleep. I sighed. "So have I." I turned and looked at what he was working on at the drafting table. It was a small painting of a boy and girl, she in a soft white dress, and he in jeans and tee shirt. They looked about fifteen. They were embracing, about to kiss. It was quite obviously the first time for both of them. It was good. I told him so. I asked the empty room. Johnny took the news of his impending stardom with total unconcern. He moved to the couch and sat down, yawning. "Detweiler? Don't think I ever laid eyes on the man. What'd he do?". "I won't take that as your final decision," he said. "As you know, we'll be here six months. If at the end of that time any of you want to go, you're still citizens of Earth." "I suppose it is," Barry said noncommittally. He couldn't figure out why the usher wanted to tell him. stay aloof from it But he refused a fourth drink regretfully. "You are as innocent as any creature in the woods," he said over and over in amazement. Amos and Jack were happy as they had ever been, and the North Wind roared to the edge of the ledge and they climbed on his back, one on each shoulder. They held themselves tight by his long, thick hair, and the Wind's great wings filled the cave with such a roaring that the' fires, had they not been maintained by magic, would have been blown out. The sound of the great wing feathers clashing against one another was like steel against bronze. Yon are five, hiding in a place only you know.
