So the grey man turned to one of his sailors and said, "You know where you can get him such a suit." You turn the viewer, racing forward through dappled shade, a brilliance of leaves: there is the glen, and now you see the fox, trotting through the shallows, blossoms of bright water at its feet. The back of his shirt was churning. The scream continued, hurting my ears. Rips appeared in the shirt. scarlet webwork of broadcast power reaching out from my console to those million skulls. I don't know. He Has a Hole in His Head and His Teeth Glow in the Dark, ROGER ZELAZNY. said. I answered sleepily, "You're really good." to come up. When it did, he started back. long-term survival. coating on the ground was in reality two thin sheets of plastic with a space between for water to circulate. Perhaps they expected to see the mirror glittering in the weeds and pebbles at the bottom of the pool; Lang sat back down and patted the ground around her, ground that was covered in a multiple layer of the Martian pressure-tight web, the kind of web that would have been made only by warmblooded, oxygen-breathing, water-economy beings who needed protection for their bodies until the full bloom of summer. Song straightened up, moving stiffly. They had all worked hard to empty out the collapsed dome and peel back the whole, bulky mess to reveal the ground it had covered. She was tired and stepped out of character for a moment to snap at Mary Lang. "Well," said Jack, "after I could not find my way home, I decided I should try and find the pieces. So I began to search. The first person I met was the thin grey man, and with him was his large black trunk in which, he said, was his nearest and dearest friend. He said if I would work for him and carry his trunk, he would pay me a great deal of money with which I could buy a ship and continue my search. He told me that he himself would very much like to see a woman worthy of a prince. 'Especially,' he said, 'such a colorful prince as you.' I carried his trunk for many months, and at last he paid me a great deal of money with which I bought a ship. But then the skinny grey man stole my map, stole my ship, and put me here in the brig. He nodded. "Ticky-tacky." Here comes the second reason, then. There's an evolutionary advantage to sexual reproduction that more than makes up for all the inconveniences.* In cloning, the genetic contents of new organisms remain identical with those of the original organisms, except for occasional mutations. If the organism is very efficiently adapted to its surroundings, this is useful, but it is an extremely conservative mechanism that reduces the chance of change. Any alteration in the environment could quickly lead to the extinction of a species. more than ten centimeters tall. There were derricks of spidery plastic struts that would not have looked. fascinating article by Joanna Russ on the pain of reviewing sf books, Baird Searles on "multiples" in sf. He was buttoning his shin. That must have been the delay: he wouldn't want anyone to see him with his shut off. Everything I'd been told about him was true. He wasn't very tall; the top of his head came to my nose. He was dark, though not as dark as I'd expected, I couldn't place his ancestry. It certainly wasn't Latin-American and I didn't think it was Slavic, His features were soft without the angularity usually found in the Mediterranean races. His hair wasn't quite black. It wasn't exactly long and it wasn't exactly short His clothes were nondescript. Everything about him was neutral? except. Darlene passed a hand before her eyes. "I guess I'm just overtired," she said. "The long trip-" we have not, since their essential meaning only dawns on us the second tune round. I. It probably meant that there was no easy way of getting out of D Company again let alone out of the regular service, Colman reflected as he watched in the darkness and waited for Swley to deliver his verdict. And that made it unlikely that Colman would get the transfer into Engineering that he had requested, Using an assumed name and a post office box number which was not his, Smith wrote to a commission agent in Boston with whom he had never had any previous dealings. He mailed the letter, with the agent's address covered by one of his labels on which he had typed a fictitious address. The label detached itself in transit; the letter was delivered. When the agent replied, Smith was watching and read the letter as a secretary typed it. The agent followed his instruction to mail his reply in an envelope without return address. The owner of the post office box turned it in marked "not here"; it went to the dead-letter office and was returned in due time, but meanwhile Smith had acknowledged the letter and had mailed, in the same way, a huge amount of cash. In subsequent letters he instructed the agent to take bids for components, plans for which he enclosed, from electronics manufacturers, for plastic casings from another, and for assembly and shipping from still another company. Through a second commission agent in New York, to whom he wrote hi the same way, he contracted for ten thousand copies of an instruction booklet in four colors. fine group of Sherlock Holmes fanciers, adjusting it slightly to its new task (O, give me some clones / Of. grey man took Amos into his cabin and they sat down on opposite sides of a table. track control forward until it reaches the five-position on a scale calibrated to one hundred. There was none, until Song spoke up thoughtfully. More reasonably, it could be argued that the clone of a great human being would retain his genetic equipment and, therefore, would be another great human being of the same kind. In that case, the chief use of cloning would be to reproduce genius. On the com circuit the tech yells: "Idiot! I'm already reading ninety. Ninety, damn it. There's still one number to go." His voice became more serious as he continued. "I don't want to go off into a lot of personal anecdotes and reminiscences. That kind of thing is customary on an occasion such as this, but it would be trivial, and I wouldn't want my last speech as president of NASDO to be marked by trivia. The times do not permit such luxury. Instead, I want to talk about matters that are of global significance and which affect every individual alive on this planet, and indeed the generations yet to be born--assuming there will be future generations." He paused. "I want to talk about survival--the survival of the human species." "Where're you from?" I asked.
